

Sign up for our newsletter and
invitations to events

Study at KHiO?

Oslo National Academy of the Arts

Become a student in an international art environment,
with close supervision from skilled teachers.

Our campus has world class ateliers, practice rooms,
workshops, stages and galleries.

At KHiO, you can develop your potential and become a professional artist.

Students

610

Academic staff

100

Campus

43 000 m²

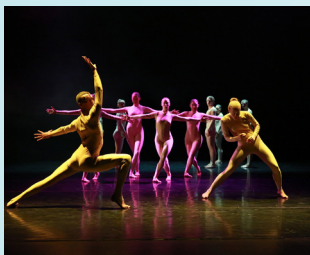

Oslo National Academy of the Arts

KHiO is Norway's largest specialized university and national public educational institution for artists and designers.

22 unique study programmes in the fields of fine art, art and craft, design, dance, theatre, and opera.

Programmes ranges from one-year, bachelor's, master's, PhD, and PGCE programmes.

KHiO is located at Grünerløkka in Oslo, in a converted factory along the Akerselva river. The campus is 43 000 square metres and one of the largest art and design facilities in Northern Europe.

Application deadlines and more information at khio.no